

PROJECT MANAGEMENT EXCELLENCE

After you work with Quest's operations teams, you'll never look back! Quest puts the world's best market research project managers and sample specialists on your team. Our experienced, 'seen-it-all' team bring a truly custom sample solution to your online study. Quest's PMs allow you to focus on what you do best – and ensure you a smooth, quality data collection process.

One of our core strengths, the Quest Project Management is comprised of industry specific professionals that are known for their execution of online data collection.

Quest really becomes an extension of your team. Providing you with consistent updates and real time information, your dedicated team keeps you in the loop every step of the way.

- Our 60+ PM teams are local and experienced in creating solutions to meet each researcher's unique requirements.
- Quest takes special care to identify the right team to be assigned to your work. This is based on specific experience and skill sets to give your research the best chance at success.
- Quest's operations leverage the best hybrid of technology and human potential. Our PMs are extensively trained on our internal TITAN™ and DETECT™ software so each project can leverage state of the art technology to ensure success.
- Quest's PM team offers global translation services so your study can be fielded in every language you require.
- We greatly respect our client's deadlines. Quest provides evening and weekend coverage on your projects so you can be sure your study receives the attention it needs to complete accurately and on time.
